6th District town hall set for Wednesday, April 26th

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites residents to attend the 6th District spring town hall meeting happening Wednesday, April 26 at 5:30 p.m. The town hall will be held at La Follette Elementary School, 3239 N. 9th St., and will include special guest Department of City Development Commissioner Lafayette Crump, and other city representatives from various departments.

The meeting will offer a prime opportunity for residents to ask questions and share their concerns. Representatives from the Milwaukee Police Department, Department of Public Works, Health Department, Department of Neighborhood Services, Department of City Development and Neighborhood Improvement Development Corp. will be in attendance.

“Our district town hall meetings are always a prime opportunity for residents to hear directly from City departments, ask questions and share concerns all in one setting,” said Alderwoman Coggs. “I strongly encourage interested residents to join us for the town hall next Wednesday evening.”
